COMPUTER SCIENCE

ABOUT ME

My name is Phongrapee Ngeabyao (Ice). I am a third-year Computer Science student at Rajamangala University of Technology Thanyaburi. I am interested in technology and enjoy learning how to develop websites and software. I like trying new tools, practicing my coding skills, and creating small projects to gain more experience. I am a fast learner, can adapt well, and always try to improve myself in both studying and working.
